

collectors' information
b u r e a u

Hot News

August 18, 2010

Visit CIB

August 2010 Hot News

Inside this issue:

AngelStar: Hope Simplicity Angel

AngelStar have been making angel figurines, along with many other faith-based and inspirational gift items for nearly two decades. Some of the newest additions to the AngelStar lines of products are the Simplicity Angels. Named after positive virtues, such as Healing, Caring, and Blessing, these new angel figurines feature a new white color and an antique finish that set them apart.

The Hope Simplicity Angel shows demonstrates many of the other new characteristics that define the Simplicity line. Her flowing, layered dress features fine detailing, including floral embellishments and cork-screw patterns. This detail extends to her delicately formed wings and long braided hair. The Hope Simplicity Angel stands 7 1/4" tall and retails for $47. For more information on the Simplicity Angels and to find a store carrying them near you, visit the AngelStar website: www.angelstar.com.

